

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY

The 2023 National VET PD Week is our seventh annual special event, designed to up-skill VET practitioners nation-wide by providing access to the highest quality professional development this October.

The week's PD offerings have been selected to extend knowledge and provide practical guidance relating directly to training and assessment practice.

Our top 5 presenters/webinars from the past 12 months are being facilitated over 5 days. They have been determined by both popularity and feedback!

Whether you are looking to further develop your training skills or fine tune your assessment practices , 2023 National VET PD Week has something for you.

All webinars in National VET PD Week are priced at Members: $55 (inc GST) / Non-members: $85 (inc GST) each.

velgtraining.com/pages/nvpdw

Date & Time	Session	Presenter
9 October 2023 11:00am - 12:30pm (AEST: QLD)	Trainer Excellence: Bringing psychology to the classroom How can students be encouraged to engage and participate to successfully complete VET Courses? They may need a 'nudge'!	Tony Kirton Founder Engage Learning & Development
10 October 2023 11:00am - 12:30pm (AEST: QLD)	Interesting Learning: 6 activities to activate your learner We all know that that interesting, interactive sessions are more likely to increase learner involvement and subsequent learning. Interaction and problem solving empower learners to play an active part in the learning process and have a voice.	Kay Schlesinger Educational Consultant
11 October 2023 11:00am - 12:30pm (AEST: QLD)	Common Assessor Issues and How to Avoid Them It is often thought that Multiple Choice questions are not applicable to VET or that they are the easiest assessment questions to write. These are incorrect assumptions!	Coleen Rivas Managing Director Raspberry Training and Consulting
12 October 2023 11:00am - 12:30pm (AEST: QLD)	Practical Ways to Build Foundation Skills and Improve Learner Results As a vocational trainer or training manager, you play a crucial role in the lives of the people you train. Foundation skills are fundamental to a person's participation in the workplace, the community and in education and training.	Chemène Sinson Principal Blackwater Projects
13 October 2023 11:00am - 12:30pm (AEST: QLD)	A Guide to Conducting Assessment Validations Assessment validation is a review process used to confirm that an RTO's assessment system can and is consistently producing valid assessment judgements.	Alan Maguire Principal Consultant On Target Work Skills