Comments in response to the question: Any other feedback you would like to provide about this session?

- Presenters were knowledgeable and gave helpful suggestions and ideas.
- A good session for strategies to implement for hidden disabilities.
- I probably said the same thing last time I saw Natalie present - she designs her presentations well and adapts to her audience as required. She has just the right level of interaction that is not too much or too little. In this particular presentation, the combined delivery with Sian worked really well, and Sian too was very clear and well spoken.
- Each of the presenters shared information that connected rather than just two presenters giving different pieces of information. All in all a valuable session.
- Fantastic!
