

2022 Qld Schools VET Conference

Elective session

The Importance of a 'Real' Simulated Environment

With Rebekkah Parsons @ 2:45pm on 5th August 2022

- 14:42:33 From Bronwyn - Velg Training :
Welcome to the 4th and final elective session of the QLD Schools VET Conference.
There is currently no audio playing.
- 14:44:24 From Bronwyn - Velg Training :
You can download the PPT PDF handout and any Additional Resources for today's sessions via the following link:
<https://www.velgtraining.com/events/1351/2112/resources>
- 14:45:57 From MichaelBeamish :
Yes
- 14:45:59 From lherb33 :
Yep
- 14:48:10 From Bronwyn - Velg Training :
For those that missed the link earlier, you can download the PDF handout and any Additional Resources for today's sessions via the following link:
<https://www.velgtraining.com/events/1351/2112/resources>
- 14:49:31 From Velg Training :
Please type your questions here and Rebekkah will answer at the end of the presentation.
- 15:22:34 From Nikki :
any tips for getting students to engage in a school environment
- 15:23:05 From lherb33 :
Thx
- 15:24:38 From Kirsty Trezise :
We try to get students involved in school events, concerts etc and they have a 'real' role and workplace expectations are as they would be for out staff (to an extent)
- 15:25:40 From Tanya Brookes :
Thank you
- 15:25:43 From Kirsty Trezise :
Thank you - great day
- 15:26:04 From lherb33 :
Thankyou

15:26:38 From Bronwyn - Velg Training :
Thanks everyone for attending the final session today.

That concludes our 2022 Queensland Schools VET Conference. On behalf of Velg Training, thank you to our presenters, sponsors and attendees.

We look forward to seeing you online again soon.
Bye for now.