Training and Assessment

To ensure that meaningful evidence is gathered here, learners could be asked to “describe the methods for achieving a healthy work-life balance” via the completion of a research project that asks them to analyse, plan, design and evaluate the approaches to work-life balance.

Discussion

How do the AQF descriptors help in gathering meaningful evidence?

MRWED
Training and Assessment

Whilst ASQA do not specifically require RTOs to provide assessment mapping...
